L.N. 100 of 1958
NIGERIA (CONSTITUTION)-ORDERS IN COUNCIL, 1954 TO 1958

Adaptation of Laws (Southern Cameroons Provisions)
Order, 1958

Commencement: 15th May, 1958

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 110 of the Nigeria (Constitution) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1958, the Governor-General, after consultation with the Council of Ministers, has made the following Order—

1. This Order may be cited as the Adaptation of Laws (Southern Cameroons Provisions) Order, 1958, and shall come into operation on the 15th May, 1958.

2. The laws specified in the Schedule shall be read and construed with the adaptations and modifications specified in such Schedule.

3. Except where it is otherwise expressly provided, where this Order requires that in any section or portion of any existing law certain words shall be substituted for other words or that certain words shall be omitted, that substitution or omission shall be made wherever the words referred to occur in that section or portion of that law.

4. Provisions of this Order which alter the manner in which or the authority by which or the law under which or in accordance with which any powers are exercisable, shall not render invalid any licence, approval, direction, notification, order, bye-law, rule, regulation or delegation duly made or issued, or anything duly done before the commencement of this Order. Any such licence, approval, direction, notification, order, bye-law, rule, regulation, delegation or thing may be revoked, varied or undone to the like extent and in the like circumstances as if it had been made, issued or done after the commencement of this Order by the appropriate authority.

5. Nothing in this Order shall affect the operation of or shall affect anything duly done or suffered under any existing instrument or any right, privilege, operation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred under any law, or any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence already committed against any law.

Made at Lagos this 14th day of May, 1958.

MAURICE JENKINS,
Acting Deputy Secretary of the Council of Ministers

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In accordance with the recent amendment by the Constitution Order, and in view of the coming into effect on the 15th May of the provisions of the amended order vesting executive control of Southern Cameroons affairs in the Executive Council of the Southern Cameroons, this order provides for the adaptation of laws as they apply to the Southern Cameroons. In respect of the many laws which are already expressed to apply to the Southern Cameroons as though it were a Region powers are transferred to the Commissioner who will exercise such powers in consultation with the Executive Council of the Southern Cameroons. In respect of other laws the order reflects the distribution of functions on the principles to be gathered from the present provisions of the constitution.
