(a) 53 & 54 Vict. c. 57.
4.—(1) The provisions contained in the Second Schedule to this Order shall have effect in relation to the public service of the Western Region and the public service of the Eastern Region.

(2) If any officer in the public service of the Western Region or the public service of the Eastern Region who is not an entitled officer for the purposes of the Second Schedule to this Order is an entitled officer for the purposes of the interim scheme he shall be deemed to be an entitled officer for the purposes of that Schedule.

(3) Where any officer in the public service of the Western Region or the public service of the Eastern Region has before the commencement of this Order in pursuance of the interim scheme applied for or been granted permission to serve in the public service of the Region for any period with rights similar to the special rights for which provision is made in the Second Schedule to this Order, or given notice of his intention to retire from that public service at any time, he shall be deemed to have applied for or been granted permission to serve in that public service for that period with special rights or to have given notice of his intention to retire from that public service at that time, as the case may be, in pursuance of the Second Schedule to this Order.

(4) Any benefits granted in pursuance of the interim scheme to officers in the public service of the Western Region or the public service of the Eastern Region on their retirement or transfer or to any other person on the death of any such officer shall be deemed to have been granted in pursuance of the Second Schedule to this Order, whether or not those benefits differ from the benefits that may be granted in pursuance of that Schedule:

(6) in the case of any other officer, such allowance or gratuity shall be paid by the Region in the public service of which the officer is serving at the time when he retires.

(3) Any law enacted by the Federal Legislature may be applied in relation to any person mentioned in subsection (2) of this section in respect of his service in the former public service of Nigeria or the public service of the Federation and in relation to his dependants in respect of any such service instead of the pensions law that applies by virtue of that subsection if the law enacted by the Federal Legislature is not less favourable to that person or his dependants, as the case may be.

(4) Any law enacted by the Legislature of a Region may be applied in relation to any person mentioned in subsection (2) of this section in respect of his service in the public service of that Region and in relation to the dependants of any such person in respect of any such service instead of the pensions law that applies by virtue of that subsection if the law enacted by the Legislature of the Region is not less favourable to that person or his dependants, as the case may be.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Order, any pension, gratuity or other like benefit that may be granted to any person who is appointed to the public service of the Federation or the public service of a Region after the commencement of this Order or to the dependants of any such person shall be governed by the law in force on the date on which that person is first appointed to a pensionable office in that public service or by any law made thereafter that is not less favourable to that person or his dependants, as the case may be, and is applicable in his or their case.

(6) Where any person is entitled to exercise an option whether one of two or more laws shall apply in his case, the law specified by him in exercising the option shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be more favourable than the other law or laws.
