AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE MILITARY PENSIONS ORDINANCE, 1955 (No. 12 of 1955).

[1st January, 1956.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislature of the Federation of Nigeria as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Military Pensions (Amendment) Ordinance, 1958, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1956.
2. Section 7 of the Military Pensions Ordinance, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance) is amended by the repeal of subsection (2) and the substitution therefor of the following—

"(2) No pension or gratuity shall be granted under this Ordinance to an officer holding a short service commission except—

(a) to such an officer who has been injured without his own default in circumstances specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Governor-General being satisfied on medical evidence that as a result of such injury he is incapable of discharging his military duties and that the injury is likely to be permanent; or

(b) to such an officer who was granted such commission without break of service after service in the ranks, on retirement from the military service in one of the cases specified in subsection (1)."

3. Section 8 of the principal Ordinance is amended by—

(a) the deletion of the words "holding a regular commission";

(b) the insertion after the words "paragraph (d) of subsection (1)" of the following—

"or paragraph (a) of subsection (2)"

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE PAYMENT OF SALARIES, GRATUITIES AND ALLOWANCES TO MEMBERS OF THE FEDERAL PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION.

[24th December, 1958.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislature of the Federation of Nigeria as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Federal Public Service Commission Ordinance, 1958.
2. In this Ordinance—

"Commission" means the Public Service Commission for the Federation established by section 174 of the Nigeria (Constitution) Order in Council, 1954.

3. (1) There shall be paid to the Chairman of the Commission—

(a) a salary of three thousand pounds a year; and

(b) upon satisfactory completion of his service as Chairman of the Commission a gratuity at the rate of seventy-five pounds for each completed three months of service.

(2) No gratuity shall be payable under this section to any serving member of the public service of the Federation or of a Region appointed to be the Chairman of the Commission who is a pensionable officer for the purposes of any Ordinance or Law relating to pensions.

4. (1) Save as provided by section 3, there shall be paid to each member of the Commission whose terms of appointment require him to devote the whole of his services to the work of the Commission—

(a) a salary of two thousand four hundred pounds a year; and

(b) upon satisfactory completion of his service as a member of the Commission a gratuity at the rate of fifty pounds for each completed three months of service.

(2) No gratuity shall be payable under this section to any serving member of the public service of the Federation or of a Region appointed to be a member of the Commission who is a pensionable officer for the purpose of any Ordinance or Law relating to pensions.

5. (1) There shall be paid to each member of the Commission whose terms of appointment do not require him to devote the whole of his services to the work of the Commission a salary of eight hundred pounds a year.

(2) No salary shall be payable under this section to any member of the public service of the Federation or of a Region appointed to be a member of the Commission.

6. In addition to any salary or gratuity payable under the provisions of this Ordinance, there shall be paid to the Chairman and other members of the Commission on account of expenses connected with their office—

(a) if incurred within Nigeria, such allowances as are paid from time to time to members of the public service of the Federation holding appointments at equivalent salaries; or

(b) if incurred outside Nigeria, such allowances as the Governor-General in his discretion may determine.

7. The amounts payable under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be a charge on the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Federation.
