INCOME TAX ORDINANCE (CHAPTER 92)

Commencement: 1st April, 1959

In exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (4) of section 9 of the Income Tax Ordinance (as amended by the Income Tax (Amendment) Ordinance, 1958), the Governor-General, after consultation with the Council of Ministers, has made the following Order—

1. (1) This order may be cited as the Income Tax (Exemption of Contract Gratuities) (Certain West African Statutory Bodies) Order, 1959, and shall have effect from the 1st April, 1959.

   (2) This Order shall be of Federal application.

2. In this Order—

   "Body" means any one of the statutory bodies incorporated by one of the following Ordinances, namely:

   West African Institute for Trypanosomiasis Research Ordinance, 1950;

   West African Institute for Oil Palm Research Ordinance, 1951,

   West African Council for Medical Research Ordinance, 1954;

   "employee" means an employee under a contract of service with a Body.

3. Where any gratuity is payable to an employee or a former employee, by the Government of the Federation of Nigeria, in respect of services rendered in Nigeria by him to a Body and described as a gratuity either in his contract of service with that Body or in some other document issued by or on behalf of that Body in connection with that contract, then, subject to the following provisions of this Order, such gratuity shall be exempt from tax.
4. Where, in the opinion of the Board, the circumstances are such that if any such gratuity so payable to an employee had been spread evenly over the period of such services and the due proportion thereof, for any year of assessment, would then have exceeded twenty-five per centum of the aggregate of such proportion and of the remuneration paid by the Body for such services to the employee for that year then such excess shall either be treated as income of the employee for that year, or if the date of the end of that year is more than six years before the date of commencement of the year of assessment in which the gratuity becomes due and payable then such excess shall not be so exempt but shall be apportioned evenly over such one or more of those six years as the Board shall think fit and as so apportioned shall be treated as income of the employee.

5. Where the period of service, whether within or without Nigeria, of the employee under any contract of service with the Body (or, where such service is under two or more contracts, the aggregate period of such service in any sixty-three consecutive months) does not amount to five years, then, upon the employee permanently ceasing such service with the Body, if the total gratuities, so payable to the employee for his service in Nigeria with the Body, exceed a sum calculated at the rate of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum for the period or aggregate period of his service in Nigeria with the Body, the amount of any such excess shall not be so exempt but shall be apportioned evenly over such last mentioned period or aggregated period as if it had accrued from day to day and as so apportioned shall be treated as income of the employee:

Provided that if any part of a gratuity payable to an employee falls to be treated as his income under both paragraphs 4 and 5 of this Order then such part shall be deducted from the amount of the excess ascertained under paragraph 5 of this Order in connection with such gratuity.

Made at Lagos this 23rd day of June, 1959.

MAURICE JENKINS,
Acting Deputy Secretary to the Council of Ministers

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Certain Officers employed by the West African Institutes of Trypanosomiasis and Oil Palm Research and of the West African Council of Medical Research, are engaged on contract terms which include terminal gratuities similar to those payable to Government Contract Officers.

The Order grants exemption from income tax in respect of those gratuities to the same extent as the gratuities payable to Government Officers are exempt, and in clauses 4 and 5 imposes certain restrictions so as to ensure that the tax benefits shall not exceed those obtainable, under the provisions of subsection 10 (1) (b) of the Ordinance, from the operation of provident funds.

(No. 39 of 1958)
Income Tax (Board’s Powers and Duties) Order, 1959

Commencement : 2nd July, 1959

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 10 of the Income Tax Administration Ordinance, 1958, as construed as one with the Income Tax Ordinance (Chapter 92), the Governor-General, after consultation with the Council of Ministers, has made the following Order—

1. This Order may be cited as the Income Tax (Board’s Powers and Duties) Order, 1959, and shall be of Federal application.

2. There shall be substituted for the First Schedule to the Income Tax Administration Ordinance, 1958, the following new Schedule—

"FIRST SCHEDULE (sections 4(5), 5(1) and 10):

POWERS OR DUTIES TO BE PERFORMED OR EXERCISED ONLY BY THE BOARD

1. In this Schedule any reference to powers or duties shall not include any part of any power or duty of the Board either to make enquiries or to carry out or to give effect to any decision of the Board."
2. The powers or duties of the Board specified or imported in the following provisions, namely—

(a) sections 3 (3), 5 (2), 9 (1) (k), (r) and (u), 10 (1) (h), 12 (2), 13 (2), (3) and (4), 14, 16, 17, 27, 28, 29 (1), 67 (4), 69 (1), 70, 72 (3), 73 (2) and 77 of the principal Ordinance and in paragraph 20 of the Fourth Schedule thereto;

(b) section 15 of the Aid to Pioneer Industries Ordinance, 1952;

(c) section 14 of the Industrial Development (Income Tax Relief) Ordinance, 1958;

(d) the power of the Board to decide to take proceedings in the name of the Board under section 4 (3) of the principal Ordinance;

(e) the power of the Board, in paragraph 24 (7) of the Fourth Schedule to the principal Ordinance, to prescribe rules;

(f) the power of the Board to consider anything necessary under and the duty to account under section 4 (2) of this Ordinance;

(g) the power of the Board to authorise under sections 3 (6), 4 (3) and (5) and 5 (1) of this Ordinance;

shall only be performed or exercised by the Board who shall have no power to authorise any other person to perform the same."

MADE at Lagos this 23rd day of June, 1959.

MAURICE JENKINS,
Acting Deputy Secretary to the Council of Ministers

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The First Schedule to the Income Tax Administration Ordinance, 1958, as substituted by this Order, excludes, from the powers or duties to be exercised by the Federal Board of Inland Revenue alone, such part of those powers or duties as consist of making enquiries, etc., upon the result of which the substantive power is exercised. For example, this substituted Schedule will not, as the former Schedule did, prevent the Board authorising an Inland Revenue Officer to make the routine enquiries under section 70 of the principal Ordinance and then reporting the matter to the Board for a decision.

Section 59, of the principal Ordinance, specified in the former First Schedule, has been omitted from this substituted Schedule. There are powers in section 59 which are not appropriate for exercise by the Board alone. For example, service of a notice under section 59 (6) is a routine matter for authorised Inland Revenue Officers.

By paragraph 2 (f) and (g) of this substituted First Schedule, certain powers, vested in the Board by the Income Tax Administration Ordinance, 1958, are added as powers to be exercised by the Board alone.
L.N. 153 of 1959

The following Statutory Instrument of the United Kingdom is re-published for information. The principal Order which it amends was re-published with all current amendments as Legal Notice 16 of 1959, but it was amended by Legal Notice 59 of this year.
