14. Officers and ratings of the Navy shall be liable for service in any ship, establishment or other place whether within or outside the limits of Nigeria.

15. (1) Every officer and rating of the Navy and the reserve shall be subject to the provisions, as modified in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) and of the First Schedule, of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, and of Queen’s Regulations and Admiralty Instructions and of all other laws and regulations for the time being in force for the government of Her Majesty’s ships, vessels and shore establishments.

(2) In the application of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, to officers and ratings of the Navy, the powers of summary trial and punishment which, in Part II of that Act are expressed to be conferred upon a commanding officer shall be exercised by officers holding the posts specified in the Second Schedule to the extent permitted by and in accordance with that Schedule.
(3) Where an officer holding a post specified in the Second Schedule has been absent from his post on duty or approved leave for more than ninety-six hours continuously or has otherwise ceased to carry out his duties through sickness or any other cause, any officer temporarily authorised to carry out the duties of the post may while so authorised exercise the same powers of punishment as may be exercised by the substantive holder of the post, and subsection (2) and the said Second Schedule shall be construed accordingly.

(4) The Governor-General in Council may by order amend the First Schedule or the Second Schedule.

16. (1) If any officer or rating of the Navy or the reserve thinks he has suffered any personal oppression, injustice or other illtreatment he may make a complaint in accordance with such procedure as may be determined by the Navy Board, and, if the complainant is not satisfied with the decision of the authority to whom his complaint is made as aforesaid and that authority neglects or refuses when requested to do so to forward the complaint to the next superior authority, the complainant shall be entitled to make his complaint direct to the next superior authority, and so on up to the Navy Board whose decision shall be final.

(2) It shall be the duty of any authority receiving a complaint under this section to have it investigated as soon as practicable and to take any steps for redressing the matter complained of which appear to that authority to be necessary.

(3) No officer or rating shall be penalized for having made a complaint under this section.

17. (1) The Governor-General in Council may make regulations generally for the better carrying into effect of the provisions of this Act and for the government, control, organisation and administration of the Navy and the reserve.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), such regulations may provide for—

(a) the division of the Navy into units, including training, reserve and cadet units;

(b) the persons in whom command over ships, craft or establishments or any officer or rating serving therein is vested, and as to the circumstances in which such command is to be exercised, and for the duties, functions and powers of any officer or rating;

(c) appointments, emoluments, periods of service, seniority, dismissal, discipline, salaries, pay, allowances and leave;

(d) appeals against dismissal or other disciplinary measures;

(e) attendance at courses of instruction of officers and ratings whether in Nigeria or elsewhere;

(f) the uniform which shall be worn by officers and ratings;

(g) the requisitioning of craft, goods or accommodation in time of emergency for naval use;

(h) deductions from the salary or wages of officers or ratings of sums properly owing to the Government of the Federation;
(i) the numerical establishment, control, organisation, administration, pay, duties and method of recall of the reserve, and such other matters relating to the reserve as the Governor-General in Council may see fit;

(j) any other matter which, under the provisions of this Act, is authorised or required to be prescribed or provided for by regulations.

(3) The Commander may make rules for the internal management of the Navy in so far as they are not inconsistent with the regulations made in pursuance of this section.

PART IV.—APPEALS FROM COURTS-MARTIAL.

18. Subject to the following provisions of this Part, an appeal shall lie from decisions of a court-martial to the Federal Supreme Court with the leave of the Federal Supreme Court:

Provided that an appeal as aforesaid shall lie as of right without the leave of the Federal Supreme Court from any decision of a court-martial involving a sentence of death.

19. (1) (a) Leave to appeal to the Federal Supreme Court shall not be given except in pursuance of an application in that behalf made by or on behalf of the appellant, and lodged, subject to subsection (2), within forty days of the date of promulgation of the finding of the court-martial in respect of which the appeal is brought, with the Registrar of the Federal Supreme Court, being an application in the prescribed form and specifying the grounds on which leave to appeal is sought and such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed.

(b) An appeal against a decision involving a sentence of death shall not be entertained by the Federal Supreme Court unless the appeal is lodged by or on behalf of the appellant, within ten days of the date of promulgation of the finding of the court-martial in respect of which the appeal is brought, with the Registrar of the Federal Supreme Court in the prescribed manner.

(2) Rules of court may provide that, in such circumstances as may be specified in the said rules, any such application or appeal which is lodged with such person (other than the Registrar) as is specified in the said rules shall be treated, for the purposes of subsection (1), as having been lodged with the Registrar.

(3) The Federal Supreme Court may extend the period within which an application for leave to appeal is required by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) to be lodged, whether that period has expired or not.

(4) In considering whether or not to give leave to appeal, the Federal Supreme Court shall have regard to any expression of opinion made by a judge advocate, if any, who acted at the court-martial that the case is a fit one for appeal, and, if any such expression is made, may give leave to appeal.

(5) Where the Federal Supreme Court dismisses an application for leave to appeal it may, if it considers the application to have been frivolous or vexatious, order that any sentence passed upon the applicant in the proceedings from which it was sought to bring the appeal shall begin to run from the day on which the Court dismisses the application.
20. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 21 on an appeal under this Part against a conviction, the Federal Supreme Court shall allow the appeal if it thinks that the finding of the court-martial is unreasonable or cannot be supported having regard to the evidence or involves a wrong decision on a question of law or that, on any ground, there was a miscarriage of justice, and in any other case shall dismiss the appeal:

Provided that the Federal Supreme Court may, notwithstanding that it is of the opinion that the point raised in the appeal might be decided in favour of the appellant, dismiss the appeal if it considers that no substantial miscarriage of justice has actually occurred.

(2) If the Federal Supreme Court allows an appeal against a conviction under this Part, it shall quash the conviction.

(3) On an appeal under this Part against sentence the Federal Supreme Court shall, if it is of opinion that a different sentence should have been passed, quash the sentence passed by the court-martial and pass such other sentence (whether more or less severe) in substitution therefor as it thinks ought to have been passed, being a sentence which could lawfully have been passed for the offence of which the appellant was convicted, or, if it is not of that opinion, dismiss the appeal.

(4) The term of any sentence passed by the Federal Supreme Court under subsection (3) shall, unless the Federal Supreme Court otherwise directs, begin to run from the time from which it would have begun to run if it had been passed in the proceedings from which the appeal is brought, and any such sentence shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be a sentence passed by the court-martial being a sentence that has been confirmed.

21. (1) If it appears to the Federal Supreme Court that an appellant, though not properly convicted on some charge preferred against him before the court-martial by which he was tried, was properly convicted on some other charge so preferred, then, if the sentence passed by the court-martial on the appellant was not one which could lawfully be passed by the court-martial for the offence of which he was convicted on the other charge, the Federal Supreme Court shall pass on the appellant, in substitution for the sentence passed on him by the court-martial, a sentence as it thinks proper, being a sentence which might lawfully be passed in respect of the charge on which the appellant was properly convicted, but not being a sentence of greater severity.

(2) Where an appellant has been convicted of an offence and the court-martial by which he was tried could lawfully have found him guilty of some other offence, and it appears to the Federal Supreme Court that the court-martial must have been satisfied of facts which proved him guilty of that other offence, the Federal Supreme Court may, instead of allowing or dismissing the appeal, substitute for the finding of the court-martial a finding of guilty of the other offence and pass on the appellant, in substitution for the sentence passed on him by the court-martial, such sentence as it thinks proper, being a sentence which could lawfully have been passed for that other offence but not being a sentence of greater severity.

(3) Where—

(a) an appellant has been convicted of an offence committed under circumstances involving the higher of two degrees of punishment and it appears to the Federal Supreme Court that the court-martial by which he was tried ought to have found him guilty of the offence as being committed under circumstances involving the lower degree of punishment; or
(b) an appellant has been convicted of an offence and it appears to the Federal Supreme Court that the court-martial by which he was tried ought to have found him guilty of the offence subject to exceptions or variations, the Federal Supreme Court may, instead of allowing or dismissing the appeal, substitute for the finding of the court-martial a finding of guilty of the offence as being committed under circumstances involving the lower degree of punishment or, as the case may be, guilty of the offence subject to exceptions or variations and pass on the appellant, in substitution for the sentence passed on him by the court-martial, such sentence as it thinks proper, being a sentence which could lawfully have been passed for the offence specified or involved in the substituted finding, but not being a sentence of greater severity.

(4) If, on an appeal, it appears to the Federal Supreme Court that, although the appellant committed the act or omission charged against him, he was insane at the time the act was done, or the omission made, so as not to be responsible according to law for his actions, the Federal Supreme Court may quash the sentence passed at the trial and order the appellant to be kept in custody, in like manner as on a special finding of insanity by the court-martial by which the appellant was convicted.

(5) The term of any sentence passed by the Federal Supreme Court under any of the foregoing provisions of this section shall, unless the Federal Supreme Court otherwise directs, begin to run from the time from which it would have begun to run if it had been passed in the proceedings from which the appeal is brought, and any such sentence shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be a sentence passed by the court-martial being a sentence that has been confirmed.

22. Subject to the provisions of any written law relating to appeals to Her Majesty in Council from judgments of the Federal Supreme Court, any determination by the Federal Supreme Court of any appeal or other matter which it has power to determine under the provisions of this Part shall be final and no appeal shall lie from the Court to any other court.

23. For the purposes of this Part the Federal Supreme Court may, if it thinks it necessary or expedient in the interests of justice, appoint any person with special expert knowledge to act as assessor to the Court in any case where it appears to the Federal Supreme Court that such special knowledge is required for the proper determination of the case.

24. An appellant shall not be entitled to be present at the hearing of an appeal to the Federal Supreme Court under this Part or at any proceedings preliminary or incidental to such an appeal except where rules of court provide that he shall have the right to be present or the Federal Supreme Court gives him leave to be present, and accordingly any power of the Court under this Part to pass a sentence may be exercised notwithstanding the absence of the appellant.

25. It shall be the duty of the Attorney-General of the Federation on an appeal against a decision of a court-martial to undertake the defence of the appeal.

26. An appellant may if he so desires, instead of presenting his case orally, present it in writing in the prescribed form.
27. Where a conviction by court-martial involves a sentence of death—
   (a) the sentence shall not in any case be executed until the expiration of the period within which an appeal to the Federal Supreme Court against the conviction shall be lodged;
   (b) if such an appeal is duly lodged, the sentence shall not be executed until the appeal is determined or abandoned;
   (c) if the appeal is dismissed, the sentence shall not be executed until the expiration of the period within which an application for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council may be made under any written law relating to such an application; and
   (d) if an application for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council is duly made, the sentence shall not be executed until the application is finally refused or is withdrawn or the appeal to Her Majesty in Council is determined or abandoned.

28. Where the conviction of a person by a court-martial for an offence has been quashed under this Part, he shall not be liable to be tried again for that offence by a court-martial or by any other court.

29. In the case of every appeal, or application for leave to appeal, under this Part to the Federal Supreme Court against a decision of a court-martial, it shall be the duty of the Commander to furnish to the Registrar of the Federal Supreme Court, in accordance with rules of court, the proceedings of the court-martial with respect to the confirmation of the finding and sentence of the court-martial.

30. (1) The Registrar of the Federal Supreme Court shall take all necessary steps for obtaining the determination of an appeal or application under this Part, and shall obtain and lay before the Federal Supreme Court in proper form all documents, exhibits and other things relating to the proceedings in the court-martial before which the appellant or applicant was tried which appear necessary for the proper determination of the appeal or application.

   (2) The Registrar of the Federal Supreme Court shall furnish the necessary forms and instructions relating to appeals or applications for leave to appeal under this Part to any person who demands them, to persons in charge of places where persons sentenced by court-martial may lawfully be confined for the purpose of serving their sentences and to such other persons as he thinks fit; and every person in charge of such a place as aforesaid shall cause the forms and instructions to be placed at the disposal of persons confined in that place who desire to lodge an appeal or make application for leave to appeal under this Part.

31. (1) The Chief Justice of the Federation may make rules of court for regulating the procedure and practice to be followed in the Federal Supreme Court for the purposes of this Part.

   (2) Rules of court made for the purposes of any provision of this Part may make different provision in relation to different classes of cases and may provide for any incidental or supplementary matters for which it appears to the Federal Supreme Court to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of that provision to provide.

   (3) Reference in this Part to "prescribed" means prescribed by such rules of court.
32. Nothing in this Part shall affect the exercise by the Governor-General of the prerogative of mercy.

33. Upon the hearing of any appeal from a court-martial the Federal Supreme Court shall consist of at least three judges.

34. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33, any judge of the Federal Supreme Court may—
   (a) give leave to appeal; or
   (b) extend the period within which an application for leave to appeal is required by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 19 to be lodged; or
   (c) allow an appellant to be present at any proceedings under this Part, but if the judge refuses an application on the part of an appellant to exercise in his favour any of the powers hereinbefore mentioned, the appellant, upon making a requisition in that behalf within the prescribed period and in the prescribed form and manner, shall be entitled to have the application determined in accordance with the provisions of section 33.

35. Subject to the provisions of this Part and to any rules of court, the provisions of the Federal Supreme Court Ordinance, 1960, relating to the hearing and determination of an appeal from subordinate courts shall apply to the hearing and determination of an appeal under this Part.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of section 15 or prejudicing in any way any action which may be taken against any officer or rating of the Navy or the reserve by virtue of the provisions of that section or of any regulations made under this Act:

Provided that no officer or rating of the Navy or the reserve shall be liable to be punished for any offence under the provisions of this Act as well as under the provisions of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, and no such officer or rating who has been convicted or acquitted of any offence pursuant to the provisions of this Act or of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, shall be liable to be tried again for the same offence.

38. The officers and ratings of the Navy and the reserve shall, in relation to the Navy, be exempt from the provisions of any enactment relating to the storage, possession or transmission of firearms, explosives, gunpowder or munitions of war to the same extent and in the same manner as members of any other of Her Majesty's armed forces are so exempt.

(2) In the application of section 15 to a member of the military forces attached to the Navy, he shall be subject to the provisions of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, Queen's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions and of any other laws and regulations for the time being in force for the government of Her Majesty's ships, vessels and shore establishments to the same extent as a member of Her Majesty's military forces attached to Her Majesty's naval forces is, by virtue of section 113 of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, so subject.

(3) None of the provisions of this Act shall apply to any woman by virtue of this section.

40. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of section 15 and of Part IV shall (so far as applicable) apply to persons embarked as passengers on board ships of the Navy (not being officers or ratings of the Navy or persons who are subject to military law under the Royal Nigerian Military Forces Ordinance, 1960) as they apply to officers and ratings of the Navy.

(2) In the application of section 15 to a person embarked as a passenger on board a ship of the Navy as aforesaid, he shall be subject to the provisions of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, Queen's Regulations and Admiraity Instructions and of any other laws and regulations for the time being in force for the government of Her Majesty's ships and vessels to the same extent as a person embarked as a passenger on board one of Her Majesty's ships is, by virtue of section 117 of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, so subject.

41. (1) It is hereby declared that persons who, being members of the Royal Navy, are subject to the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, and are seconded to serve with the Navy shall remain subject to that Act and shall not be subject to this Act.

(2) The powers of arrest conferred by section 45 of the Naval Discipline Act, 1957, and the provisions of sections 103 to 110 (which relate to deserters, absentees and other offenders) shall apply in Nigeria to the persons referred to in subsection (1) as they apply in a colony of the United Kingdom.
