In exercise of the powers conferred by section 45 of the National Provident Fund Act, 1961 the Governor-General in Council has made the following regulations—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Provident Fund (Seamen) Regulations, 1962, and shall come into force on the 22nd day of November, 1962.

"Seaman" means a permanent resident in Nigeria employed as a member of the crew of any ship the owners of which have a place of business, or have agents, in Nigeria.

Registration of Seamen by their Employers.

3. A Seaman may be registered as a member of the Fund either by his employer or by any association or body formed for the purpose or by any person supplying seamen to masters of ships. In the event of his being registered by any such association or body or person, the seaman shall, solely for the purpose of registration under the Act, be deemed to be in the employ of such association, body or person as the case may be.

4. Irrespective of the length of engagement any seaman under articles on a ship shall not be regarded as a casual worker for the purpose of the Act.

Payment of Contributions.

(2) Where a seaman has deserted his ship whilst in a foreign port and there is no balance of wages due to him or the balance has been used in repatriating him to Nigeria, the Director shall have power to waive payment of contributions if it seems reasonable in the circumstances of the case.

(3) Except for payments in respect of sickness, all advances on account of wages made to any seaman during the currency of his articles shall be considered as payment of wages and shall be liable to assessment for contributions.

(4) The Director may enter into arrangements with any person, association or body of persons supplying seamen to masters of ships whereby such person, association or body of persons as the case may be, shall, on behalf of the master or such other person responsible for the payment of wages, submit to the Fund the documents and remittances required to be rendered under these regulations, and any such documents and remittances shall be deemed to be held by such person, association or body of persons as agent of the Fund for delivery of the same to the Fund within the time prescribed.

6.—(1) For the purpose of determining the maximum contribution payable for, and in respect of, a seaman, the contribution shall be deemed payable monthly, notwithstanding the definition of contribution period in the Act.

(2) The contribution payable in respect of a seaman in respect of the period during which he is serving under articles shall be calculated according to the number of calendar months in such period starting from the first day of the engagement.
