AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO CUSTOMS AND EXCISE.

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislature of the Federation of Nigeria in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. Where—

(a) any goods are entered outwards for the purpose of being exported from Nigeria; and

(b) by virtue of section five of the Customs Tariff Act, 1958 (which relates to export duties) a duty of customs is chargeable on the goods; and

(c) the Board of Customs and Excise is satisfied that it is proposed to import those goods into Nigeria within such period as the Board may determine in the case of those goods;

the Board may, either unconditionally or on such conditions as the Board may determine, allow the goods to be exported from and subsequently imported into Nigeria without payment of any customs duty.

2. (1) Where—

(a) any imported goods are, apart from this section, chargeable with a duty of customs in accordance with subsection (1) of section twelve of the Customs Tariff Act, 1958 (which provides that, subject to certain safeguards, the duty on goods of which a part or ingredient is a dutiable article or dutiable articles shall be charged as if the goods consisted wholly of that article, or of such of those articles as is chargeable with the highest rate of duty); and

(b) it appears to the Board inequitable that the goods should be so chargeable, then, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of that section,—

(i) the goods shall be treated as comprising only those articles which form a part or ingredient of the goods and which would be chargeable with such a duty if imported separately (excluding any of them of which, in the opinion of the Board, the quantity is negligible); and
(ii) the amount of the duty in respect of the goods shall be the amount or aggregate amount which would have been chargeable on the article or articles taken into account in accordance with paragraph (i) above if it or they had been imported separately.

2. The Customs Tariff (Amendment) Act, 1961 (which amended the said section twelve) is hereby repealed and shall be deemed never to have been enacted.

3.—(1) The Governor-General may by regulations provide for the exportation and loading as stores of spirits without the payment of any excise duty chargeable on spirits apart from this section.

(2) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different circumstances and may contain such incidental and supplemental provisions as the Governor-General considers expedient for the purposes of the regulations, including in particular provision for the imposition of fines in respect of offences against the regulations (not exceeding a fine of two hundred pounds for each offence) and provision for forfeitures in connection with such offences.

4. Nothing in the customs or excise laws shall be construed as limiting to imported goods the provisions of those laws relating to the warehousing of goods; and accordingly the words “upon first importation” in section seventy-three of the Customs and Excise Management Act, 1958, the words “on first importation” in subsection (1) of section seventy-four of that Act, and the words “on importation” in subsection (2) of section seventy-eight of that Act are hereby repealed.

5. The requirements which the Board is authorised to impose on the holder of an excise licence by subsection (1) of section one hundred and eleven of the Customs and Excise Management Act, 1958, shall include the requirement to provide at his own expense and lease to the Board, on such reasonable terms as the Board may determine, living accommodation which the Board considers suitable for occupation by, and by the household of, any officer charged with duties which, in the opinion of the Board, make it desirable that he should reside on or near the premises for which the excise licence in question is granted; and the provisions of subsection (2) of that section (which provide for the revocation or suspension of an excise licence for failure to comply with a requirement made in pursuance of the said subsection (2)) shall have effect accordingly.

6. Where a claim is made to the Board for the repayment of any sum in respect of an amount paid by way of duty in excess of the amount chargeable in respect of that duty, the Board may if it thinks fit require the claimant to defray, in accordance with such reasonable scales as the Board may determine, the administrative expenses incurred by the Board in connection with the repayment.

7. The authorisation to possess and control arms and ammunition given by the Customs Preventive Service (Firearms) Act, 1962, to members of the Customs Preventive Service not below the rank of Assistant Superintendent shall extend to officers of that service not below the rank of Senior Preventive Officer, and to members of that service below that rank when, but only when, they are acting under the personal supervision of such an officer.
8.—(1) Any officer who is authorised in writing by the Board to exercise the powers conferred by this subsection may, for the purpose of enforcing the customs or excise laws, at any time, on production if so required of his authority and if need be by force, enter and search any premises in respect of which he reasonably believes that a licence under the Liquor (Licensing) Act, 1959, is in force and any room or place adjacent to and communicating with the premises.

(2) Any person who obstructs an officer acting in pursuance of the foregoing subsection shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine of an amount not exceeding five hundred pounds or to both; and where a person who has committed an offence under this subsection is the manager or servant of the holder of such a licence as aforesaid in respect of the premises in question, the holder also shall be deemed to have committed the like offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (c) of section twenty, section forty-two and section forty-five of the said Act of 1959 (which provide for the endorsement on licences of convictions under that Act and for the refusal and forfeiture of licences) shall apply in relation to a conviction under this section as they apply in relation to a conviction under that Act.

9.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Customs and Excise Act, 1962, and shall apply throughout the Federation, except that section eight of this Act shall apply only to the Federal territory.

(2) This Act shall be construed as one with the Customs and Excise Management Act, 1958.
