Made at Lagos this Second day of April, 1963.

J. M. Garba,
Acting Deputy Secretary to the Council of Ministers

Explanatory Note

This Order has the following effects:—

(a) it increases duty on:—

footwear from a minimum of 2s-6d to a minimum of 3s-6d per pair;
biscuits from 33½ per centum ad valorem to 50 per centum ad valorem;
canned meats and poultry from 25 per centum ad valorem to 50 per centum ad valorem.

(b) it reduces the duty on:—

unbleached grey baft imported by approved manufacturers solely for the production of printed fabrics, from 1s per square yard or ad valorem 25 per centum to 1s-8d per square yard;
motor buses and coaches and parts thereof imported for assembly by approved manufacturers from 25 per centum ad valorem to 5 per centum ad valorem.
(c) it exempts from duty:
- ferro alloys of manganese and silicon;
- fluorspar;
- lifting gates and hoists used for water supply, irrigation or sewerage;
- goods imported by the Catholic Relief Services for distribution free of charge within Nigeria to the poor and needy and goods imported for the official use of the Programme Director for Nigeria of Catholic Relief Service;
- goods imported by the Church World Service for distribution free of charge within Nigeria to the poor and needy and goods imported for the official use of the Nigeria Representative of the Church World Service.

(d) it provides for an alternative import duty on suitcases and other travel goods imported nested.

(e) it amends the wording of the exemption for large diameter tyres and tubes.

(f) it removes the export duty on tin and tin ore.
