The Center for Research Libraries scans to provide digital delivery of its holdings. In some cases problems with the quality of the original document or microfilm reproduction may result in a lower quality scan, but it will be legible. In some cases pages may be damaged or missing. Files include OCR (machine searchable text) when the quality of the scan and the language or format of the text allows.

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE MANAGEMENT ACT, 1958
(No. 55 of 1958)

Small Craft (Amendment) Regulations, 1963

Commencement : 1st August, 1963

In exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (1) of Section 69 of the Customs and Excise Management Act, 1958, the Governor-General has made the following regulations:

1. These regulations may be cited as the Small Craft (Amendment) Regulations, 1963, and shall apply throughout the Federation.

2. The Small Craft Regulations, 1959 are amended by the deletion of paragraph (b) of regulation 2 and the substitution therefor of the following—

"Limits outside which certain small crafts may not be used.

(b) Eastward of West Point Beacon, Calabar River outside the area bounded by the coasts of Nigeria and a line drawn from West Point Beacon, Calabar River, to a point on a bearing 180 degrees ten nautical miles from East Point, Calabar River."

Made at Lagos this 25th day of July, 1963.

R. C. Onyejepu,
Acting Deputy Secretary to the Council of Ministers

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Territory previously known as the Cameroons under United Kingdom Trusteeship is no longer a part of Nigeria and it has become necessary to redefine the limits outside which certain small craft may not be used.
