Edict No. 1

THE MILITARY GOVERNOR OF LAGOS STATE hereby makes the following Edict—

1. The oaths to be taken as occasion shall demand shall be the oaths set out in Schedule 1 of this Edict.

2. A person appointed to an office set out in the second column of Schedule 2 of this Edict shall take the oath specified in the first column of the said Schedule 2 which shall be administered by the authority specified in the third column of the said Schedule 2.

3.—(1) Save as hereinafter provided no person who has duly taken the Oath of Allegiance or the Judicial Oath under the Oaths Act 1963 or under this Edict, as the case may require, shall be required again to take that oath on appointment to any other office or on any other occasion.

(2) A person appointed to act in any office or capacity in the place of any officer or person, shall not be required to take any oath on the occasion of such appointment, unless the oath required to be taken in respect of such appointment is different from or is in addition to any oath duly taken by him in respect of any other appointment, permanent or temporary.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a person holding an office or position specified in the second column of Schedule 2 of this Edict shall, as soon as may be convenient after the coming into force of this Edict, take the oath prescribed for that office in the first column of the said Schedule,
4.—(1) Nothing in this Edict shall render, or be deemed to have rendered invalid any act done or which hereafter may be done by a public officer in the execution or intended execution of his official duties, by reason only of the omission by the public officer to take an oath which the officer should take or should have taken:

Provided that any person who declines, neglects, or omits to take the required oath under this Edict shall,

(a) if he has already entered on his office, be deemed to have vacated that office from the date of refusal; and

(b) if he has not already entered on his office, be disqualified from entering on the same.

(2) No irregularity in the form in which an oath is administered or taken shall—

(a) invalidate the performance of official duties, or

(b) invalidate proceedings in any court, or

(c) render inadmissible evidence in or in respect of which an irregularity took place in any proceedings.

(3) The failure to take an oath and any irregularity as to the form of oath shall in no case be construed to affect the liability of a witness to state the truth.

5.—(1) Whenever an oath is required to be taken under the provisions of any enactment or Law or this Edict, or in order to comply with the requirement of any law in force for the time being in Nigeria or other country the following provisions shall apply—

The person taking the oath may do so in form and manner following, that is to say—

(a) he shall,

(i) if a Moslem, place both hands on a copy of the Koran,

(ii) if a Christian, hold in his right hand a copy of the Holy Bible or of the New Testament,

(iii) if a Jew, hold in his uplifted hand a copy of the Old Testament,— and shall say or repeat after the person administering the oath the words prescribed by law or by the practice of the court, as the case may be;

(b) in any other manner which is lawful according to any law, customary or otherwise, in force in Nigeria, and accepted as binding in Lagos State.

(2) Where any person taking an oath is physically incapable of taking the oath as provided in the foregoing subsection, he may touch or hold such copy otherwise, or if necessary, such copy may be held before him by the person administering the oath.

6. Every commissioner for oaths or notary public before whom any oath or affidavit is taken or made under this Edict shall state truly in the jurat or attestation at which place and on what date the oath or affidavit is taken or made.

7. Where an oath has been duly administered and taken, the fact that the person to whom the same was administered had, at the time of taking the oath, no religious belief, shall not for any purpose affect the validity of the oath.
8.—(1) Any person who objects to the taking of an oath and desires to make an affirmation in lieu thereof may do so without being questioned as to the grounds of such objection or desire, or otherwise, and in any such case the form of the required oath shall be varied by the substitution for the words of swearing "I solemnly, sincerely, and truthfully affirm that..."; and such other consequential variations of form as may be necessary shall thereupon be made:

Provided that in any case where the Oath of Allegiance is to be taken, for the words "truthfully affirm" in this section there shall be substituted the words "truly declare and affirm," and the words "so help me God," shall be omitted.

(2) Accordingly, reference in this Edict to "oath" shall be construed as including in that expression, any affirmation made pursuant to this section.

9. Anything to the contrary in this Edict notwithstanding, if it appears to a court or officer before whom an oath other than a promissory oath is to be taken that the person about to take the oath ought not, by reason of immature age or for any other sufficient cause, to be allowed to take the oath, it shall be lawful for the court or officer, if the court or officer shall in its or his free discretion so think fit, to allow such person, in lieu of taking the oath to give evidence or make a declaration without oath; and in any such case the court or officer shall enter in the minutes of the proceedings or on the instrument or document concerned, as the case may be, a note of the fact of the evidence or declaration having been given or made without oath and of the reason therefor:

Provided that, if any person declining or objecting to take an oath is, in the opinion of the court or officer as the case may be, competent to make an affirmation, such person shall, on the court or officer so directing him, thereupon make an affirmation as provided by section 8 of this Edict.

10.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Chief Justice of the State, and for a judge of the High Court, a magistrate, a notary public and any commissioner for oaths in the State, to administer any lawful oath or affidavit which may be required to be taken or made for the purpose of complying with the requirements of this Edict, or as the case may be, of any law in force throughout or elsewhere, except where such procedure is expressly or by necessary implication manifestly excluded by the terms of such law as aforesaid; and the presumption shall be against any such exclusion.

(2) Any of the persons mentioned in subsection (1) of this section may take any declaration made in the form prescribed in Schedule 1 of this Edict in cases where an oath is or has been abolished with or without any substitution therefor by any enactment having the force of law in the State.

(3) It shall likewise be lawful for the registrar of any court in this State and for the officer performing the duties of registrar in any such court with the approval, and subject to the supervision and control, of the person presiding over the court, to administer or tender to any person about or intending to give evidence before such court, the evidence oath or affirmation, or any oath or declaration as aforesaid, which such person may require or be required to take or make before such court.

11. Any commissioner for oaths, notary public or any other person authorised by this Edict to administer an oath, may take and receive the declaration of any person voluntarily making the same before him in the form set out in Schedule 1 of this Edict.
12.—(1) The Military Governor may in writing require the holder of any office to take the Judicial Oath or the Oath of Allegiance, anything in his Edict to the contrary notwithstanding.

(2) The Military Governor may from time to time by order published in the Gazette amend Schedule 1 or 2 of this Edict.

13. In this Edict except where the context otherwise requires—

“Chief Justice” means the Chief Justice of Lagos State;

“High Court” means the High Court of Lagos State and “judge of the High Court” shall have the corresponding meaning;

“Military Governor” means the Military Governor of Lagos State;

“oath” includes an affirmation.

14.—(1) This Edict may be cited as the Oaths Edict 1967.

(2) As from the commencement of this Edict the Oaths and Affirmations Law of Western Nigeria and the Official Oaths Law 1963 of Western Nigeria shall, in so far as they may be construed to apply, cease to have effect in Lagos State.
