THE POLICE ACT
(CAP. 154)

The Police (Amendment) Regulations 1967

Commencement : See Regulation 1 (2)

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 47 of the Police Act and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf the Head of the Federal Military Government, on the recommendation of the Police Service Commission, hereby makes the following regulations:

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Police (Amendment) Regulations 1967 and shall be read as one with the Police Regulations made in the year 1959 (in these regulations hereafter referred to as “the principal regulations”); and shall apply throughout the Federation.

(2) These regulations shall be deemed to have come into force on 1st October 1967, so however, that the omission pursuant to these regulations of references, however made, in the principal regulations to officers of non-commissioned rank (other than sergeants and corporals) shall be deemed to have been made with effect from 1st January 1965.

2. For paragraph (1) of regulation 26 of the principal regulations there shall be substituted the following—

“(1) If a member of the force is dismissed for a disciplinary offence, the dismissal shall have effect on the date when the award of that punishment is brought to his notice, or (if it is the earlier) the date on which notice of that award is served on him by post at his last known address and is thereafter presumed to have been duly delivered.”

3. In the Third Schedule of the principal regulations references to Sergeants-Major, Staff Sergeants and Lance-Corporal shall be omitted and accordingly for the headings and, in respect of relevant punishments, for the first two items in the first column of that Schedule, there shall be substituted as applicable to all items not replaced, the following lay-out, as well as three items by way of replacement, that is to say,—
