THE CURRENCY CONVERSION (SOUTH-EASTERN AND OTHER STATES) DECREE 1968
(1968 No. 11)

The Currency Conversion (South-Eastern and Other States) Regulations 1968

Commencement: 3rd September, 1968

1. These regulations may be cited as the Currency Conversion (South-Eastern and Other States) Regulations 1968 and shall apply throughout the Federation.

2.—(1) The governor of the Central Bank of Nigeria may by writing under his hand give directions of a general or a special nature for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of currency notes in any state or province of that part of the Federation of Nigeria formerly known as the Eastern Region.

   (2) Directions under this regulation may provide—

   (a) for the exchange of any currency circulating in any such state or province aforesaid within such limits as to amount as the bank thinks fit without registration;

   (b) for registration and deposit with designated exchange authorities of amounts tendered for exchange in excess of the limits imposed pursuant to paragraph (a) above, and where so registered and deposited a receipt shall be given to the depositor by the exchange authority;

   (c) for exchange in special cases to be effected below par.

3.—(1) Where it is necessary to give effect to exchange transactions under the Decree an exchange authority may operate behind closed doors, and if it thinks fit during normal working hours; and no action or other suit shall lie against an exchange authority for failure to open or keep open for banking business in any such event.

   (2) If an exchange is effected at a rate below par and a loss thereby occurs, no more than the exact amount of the loss shall be passed on to a customer.

4. The failure to comply with the requirements of these regulations or of any directive issued pursuant thereto shall be an offence punishable on conviction by a fine of not less than £100 or imprisonment for a term not less than six months or to both.

Made at Lagos this 3rd day of September 1968.

ALHAJI YAHAYA GUSAU,
Federal Commissioner for Finance
