The Center for Research Libraries scans to provide digital delivery of its holdings. In some cases problems with the quality of the original document or microfilm reproduction may result in a lower quality scan, but it will be legible. In some cases pages may be damaged or missing. Files include OCR (machine searchable text) when the quality of the scan and the language or format of the text allows.

If preferred, you may request a loan by contacting Center for Research Libraries through your Interlibrary Loan Office.

Government Notice No. 343

ANNOUNCEMENT OF FIELD POST VACANCY IN THE FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Post title (Post No., Project).—OLIVE PRODUCTION OFFICER SPA/70/521—“Centre for the Improvement and Demonstration of Production Techniques”.

Vacancy announcement.—No. 973-AGP-175.

Duty station.—Cordova, Spain.

Duration.—One year (renewable).

Starting date.—As soon as possible.

Background information.—The Government requires assistance with installing a centre, for the testing demonstration of modern olive-production techniques in Cordova and with training specialized personnel for the olive-growing countries of the Mediterranean basin and the Near East. The project started operation in July 1970. The Project Manager will be assisted by internationally recruited consultants and specialists in olive-tree cultivation, in the physiology of the tree and in water/soil/fruit tree relationships, as well as by outside teachers specializing in various aspects of olive production. To facilitate implementation of the project within the time limits, the Government will provide the following facilities:

- Services of counterpart personnel specializing in the above-mentioned fields.
- Land, laboratory, offices, conference room.
- Ancillary personnel.
- Transport and handling of equipment within the country; and
- Supplying of all available documentation.
Duties.—Under the authority of the Project Manager, the olive-production officer will be responsible for the following tasks:

Collaborating on the preparation and implementation of experimental and demonstration work concerning the improvement of olive-culture methods and, especially, the fruit-cutting process in its relation to mechanical harvesting and to propagation.

Giving courses and seminars on olive culture.

Preparing the documentation and material necessary for the courses and demonstrations and assisting in their work the technicians of the various countries who attend the centre.

Organizing bibliographical and technical documentation on his speciality for use by the centre.

Programming and directing laboratory work falling within his speciality and that performed in the field.

Organizing a collection of olive-tree varieties from the various countries, and programming and executing propagation with a view to distributing collections to interested countries.

Collaborating on the preparation of publications concerning various aspects of olive cultivation.

Qualifications.—University degree in horticulture.

Experience.—At least seven years' experience in cultivation (or Mediterranean fruit-tree cultivation), particularly in modern methods of propagation.

Languages.—Good knowledge of Spanish. Good knowledge of French and/or English.

Other.—Ability to establish good relations with people of different nationalities and professional levels.

Emoluments.—Salaries and benefits are liberal, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post and in line with the depth and breadth of training and experience.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY IN THE FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Post title (Post No., Project.—ANIMAL PRODUCTION OFFICER (PROJECT MANAGER), Development of Animal Draught Techniques and Meat Production DAH/72/015.

Vacancy announcement.—No. 979-AGA-65.

Date issued.—26th January, 1973.

Duty station.—Cotonou, Dahomey.

Duration.—30 months.

Starting date.—April 1973.

Background.—Animal production is one of the priority targets of the agricultural development programme of the Government of Dahomey. Animal production is concentrated in the north of the country where the manual cultivation of cotton with its great demand for labour has nearly reached the limit of the human potential available in the region (especially Borgou). Animal draught is an essential complement to manpower. The project is designed to encourage the integration of livestock-raising and agriculture, the increase of meat production through the sale of culled and farm-fattened oxen, the assignment of trained personnel and the setting up of suitable infrastructure.

Duties.—The Project Manager will be responsible for co-ordinating the work of the experts assigned to him, for the cattle-feeding programme (work oxen, fattening of young bulls from the bush), for organizing the fodder crop programme, using agro-industrial by-products and keeping in touch with government veterinary services.

Qualifications.—Degree in agriculture or veterinary science with a good knowledge of animal husbandry-knowledge of fodder crops essential.

Experience.—At least 10 years experience in the animal production field (cattle).

Languages.—Very good knowledge of French. Knowledge of English desirable.

Emoluments.—Salaries and benefits are liberal, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post and in line with the depth and breadth of training and experience.
